THE NEWS DURING THE PRES-

IDENTIAL CAMPAIGN.

We desire to have the News largely circulated during the Presidential campaign. The larger our subscription list the more effectually will we be enabled to work, and to this end we trust our friends and patrons will exert themselves somewhat in adding to our present list. The nation will in November declare for Greeley and Brown, and it is essential that North Carolina should place herself squarely on this liberal movement—for such a consummation will we earnestly labor.In order to place the DAILY and WEEKLY NEWS within the reach of all, we will send them for a period of four months at the following rates:

DAILY NEWS.	One copy,	Five copies,	Ten copies, $2 00	$10 00	$17 00

WEEKLY NEWS.

One copy,	Five copies,	Ten copies,
$3 00	$15 00	$25 00

Twenty copies, $40 00.
Fifty copies, $100 00.
One hundred copies, $200 00.We trust our friends in the State will assist us in adding names to our list, as by a little exertion on their part we can be enabled to accomplish much good during the present campaign.

LOCAL MATTER.

E. C. WOODSON, City Editor.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.—H. A. London, Jr., Greeley and Brown Elector for this District, and Hon. John Manning, and others, will speak at Lenoir on the 10th inst., and at Kirtrells on the 12th.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The extreme heat of Sunday kept many from going out to church.
The new Fisher store is to be occupied by Messrs. Julius Lewis & Co., hardware dealers.Remember the ball at Kirtrell's, Wednesday and Thursday nights. The balls there are always pleasant.The thermometer on Sunday, in this city, worked itself up to 96 in the shade. "How high is this" for the fall of the year?We see that Sheriff Lee, or Job No. 3, has at last got the best of his 42 bolts and carbuncles, and is now out on crutches.We are indebted to the "Howard Band of Hope" temperance society for an invitation to attend the anniversary celebration at Metropolitan Hall last night.The editor of the Banner of Temperance, Theo. N. Ramsay, Esq., will deliver a temperance address at Olin Eupeptic Springs, Iredell county, on the 18th inst."Tarboro is happy."—Franklin Con-rider.We wonder if the Lenoir Courier man is correspondingly miserable—oh, Furman?The Banner of Temperance has his subscription price at $100 for six months and $200 for twelve months.— We don't see the "point" in these figures, neighbor.City subscribers to the News are requested to be as prompt as possible in making their payment to the carriers, as by so doing they will save them a great deal of unnecessary inconvenience.Vegetables and eggs are both scarce and high in our market; in fact, there was no eggs to be had yesterday, even at a high price. Our country people are to blame for this state of affairs.— Let them do better.Gov. Caldwell pardoned out of the penitentiary on Friday, the following convicts: Jerry Forbes, col., of New Hanover, convicted of burglary; Green Kent, col., Wilson county, attempt to commit rape; Lucius Griffin, Wake county, larceny.To BE HAD.—Flour, bacon, lard, honey, herring, &c., &c., are to be had at reasonable rates of W. C.
Stronach, in the brick store adjoining the Yarrowborough House.SPECIAL NOTICE.—It having been circulated around the city that General Grant and Horace Greeley owe us for clothing, we hereby declare, upon our honor as clothiers, that such a scandalous report is false and malicious, as they have always paid for every article bought of us.Yours truly, RAMSAY & CO.,
Fashionable Clothiers.THE NATIONAL HOTEL.—The staff editorial of the News and Sentinel dined, by invitation, at the National Hotel on Sunday. This hotel is now under the management of Mr. M. W.
Churchill, and the general appearance of neatness and order throughout the building, as well as the "table fixings," indicate most clearly that "mine host" knows his business. The following bill of fare, served up on Sunday, proved sufficiently tempting to our palate:Soup—Mock Turtle.
Roast—Leg of Mutton, Parsley Sauce, Bacon with Cabbage, Martin's Palmetto Ham.Entrées—Salmon of Tame Duck, a La Richelieu, Hard Crabs, Macaroni Baked, an Par-mesian Cheese, American style, Sweet Potatoes baked, an Cheese, Rice Cake, with Currants, Port Wine Sauce, Queen Fritters, Lemon Flavour.Roast—Joint of Beef, Lamb, Mint Sauce, Spring Chickens, stuffed, Ham, baked Champagne Sauce.Cold Dishes—Roast Beef, Duffled Ham, Mutton.Vegetables—Mashed Potatoes, Boiled Potatoes, Baked Mashed Potatoes, Baked Sweet Potatoes, Green Corn, Onions, Peas, Cabbage, Tomatoes.Relishes—Worcestershire Sauce, Walnut Catsup, Mixed Pickles, French Mustard, Tomato Catsup, Mustard, Olives.Pastry—Bird's Nest Pudding, Peach Pie, Lemon Pudding, Floating Island, Fruit Cake, Sponge Cake, Coconut Pies, Jelly Roll, Washington Biscuit.Dessert—Scuppernon Grapes, Almonds, Filberts, Apples, Peaches, Brazil nuts, Figs, Raisins, English Walnuts, Peanut nuts, French Kisses, Chocolate, French Coffee and Tea.Added to this was something to wash it down. We wish Mr. Churchill much success in his undertaking.MAYOR'S COURT.—Monday September 9, 1872.—His Honor Mayor Whitaker presiding.Loveless Puryear, arrested for violation of chapter 4, section 3, city ordinance, to wit: "loud cursing and swearing" on Wilmington street was fined $5, severely reprimanded by the Mayor, and on the promise of Puryear, that he would reform his life, he left the court.Abram West, col., arrested Saturday night for an attempt to enter the house of Mr. Joseph Howard, was up for a hearing this morning. The evidence was horrible, as detailed by witnesses of his own race. He told some of the witnesses that he slept under the house the night before in order to find out what room was occupied by the male part of the family. Having satisfied himself as to this, then he intended to enter the room of the young ladies and satisfy his lustful passions.Mr. Wm. Griffice testified that on Wednesday night he heard a noise, and on hoisting his window he saw in the yard, near the window which West intended to enter, West standing, and threatened to shoot West, who after some defiant replies bounded over the fence and escaped.Mr. Griffice lives next house to Howard, the house of the latter forming the dividing line between them.In default of $500 bail, West was committed.PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.—Col. Wm. L.
DeRossett, of the firm of DeRossett & Co., of Wilmington, is stopping at the Yarrowborough.Gen. Dan. Sickles, first cousin to Gen. Daniel E. Sickles, of New York, was at the National Hotel.We had the pleasure of seeing in our office last evening, Capt. James R. Thig-pen, Editor of the Reconstructed Farmer, and one of the staunchest farmers of Edgecombe.Judge A. S. Merrimon returned to the city on Sunday morning, after an absence of some weeks in the Western part of the State. He will remain in town a few days before he returns to Asheville, where his family is spending the heated season. We are pleased to see that the Judge has entirely recovered from the fatigues of the late campaign in which he engaged so vigorously.WHAT IS THE MATTER?—We have recently received several complaints from points along the line of the North Carolina railroad, concerning the failure of the News to reach our subscribers at the proper time. They often double, and some times are two and three days behind time. The evening edition of the News is placed upon the cars every evening, having missed twice in some two months. There is evidently a fault somewhere, and we would be glad to be informed where it occurs. Can the postal agent give us any information on this point? We are determined to have such errors corrected, and would be pleased if our subscribers would notify us promptly when they fail to get their papers.VALUABLE REAL ESTATE AT PUBLIC AUCTION.—Plummer W. Green, Esq., Executor and Commissioner, advises in another column, for sale at public auction on the 26th day of October, that valuable piece of property known as Green's Mill, situated on Fishing Creek, two miles from Warrenton. For particulars, see the advertisement.A DELIGHTFUL RAIN.—This locality was yesterday evening visited with a delightful rain, which served to greatly refresh everything animate. It had been much needed and, we have no doubt, was of benefit to crops generally —certainly it served to allay the choking dust with which our streets had been afflicted."EDUCATE YOUR SONS."—See the notice in the new advertisement department of the Business College of Messrs.
Bryant, Stratton & Sadler, of Baltimore.This house has won a deserved reputation under the management of Wm. H.
Sadler, President, and young men desiring a thorough knowledge of the business world should give this College a trial."STILL IN THE FIELD."—By reference to advertisement on this page, it will be seen that the old original Empire City Minstrels will exhibit at Tucker Hall on Friday evening, the 13th inst., performance to commence at 8 o'clock. Lovers of fun should not fail to go, as a good time may be expected.MASONIC.—The Grand Lodge of Colored Masons of North Carolina will meet at Tucker Hall, on Friday today, at 10 o'clock, A. M., for the transaction of business, after which they will proceed to Metropolitan Hall, and at 2 o'clock, P. M., there will be a sep 10-4tHISTORY OF THE RALEIGH BAPTIST CHURCH.—From an interesting sermon delivered on last Sabbath, by Dr.

Pritchard, we glean the following facts touching the history of the Raleigh Baptist Church:About the beginning of 1812, Rev.
Robert T. Daniel, a Baptist minister, residing near Holly Springs, Wake county, spent a night in Raleigh, then a small village. Hearing that a Universalist was to preach that night in Cle-ndening's meeting-house, he attended, and to the challenge which the preacher gave at the close of his sermon, he responded by stating that he would answer the Universalist in that church at a given time. Whereupon, Mr. Cle-ndening arose and exclaimed "You shall have my meeting-house to preach in!""Very well," replied Mr. Daniel, "then I'll preach in the State House at the time appointed." He did preach to a very large congregation at the time designated, and so powerful was the impression produced that six hundred dollars were subscribed that night to build a Baptist Church in Raleigh.A short time after this, March 8th, 1812, Mr. Daniel and Rev. Zadock Bell organized a church in the State House, of nine white and thirteen colored members, who had been dismissed from Cool Spring church, located about four miles North-west of Raleigh, near Tucker's Mill, but now extinct.The constituent white members were Hardy Saunders, Elihanott Nutt, John Bridges, Samuel Pearson, Mary Saunders, Nancy Card, Dollie Grayson and Fabithe Hutchings. The following July Rev. Robert T. Daniel was chosen pastor and Hardy Saunders and John Bridges were ordained as deacons.In 1815 Rev. R. T. Daniel removed to Greenville, Pitt county, and it does not appear that the Church had a regular pastor for several years. During this episcopal hiatus the pulpit of the Church, then located on the lot where Mr. Pepper now lives, was occupied occasionally by the late Rev. Josiah Cradup, Rev.
John Purifoy, and Rev. Zadock Bell, and Dr. McPheters, the Presbyterian pastor of Raleigh often ministered to the Church on Sabbath afternoons.The records show that the Rev. Thomas Crocker was pastor in 1821. In 1822, Mr. Daniel became pastor a second time —about this time the Church was removed from the lot of Mrs. Dudley to Moore Square, where it stood until within the past year.On the 25th of March, 1827, P. W.
Dowd, a recent graduate of Columbian College at Washington, D. C., was ordained pastor of the Church; Rev.
Thos. Crocker preaching the sermon of the occasion. Mr. Dowd resigned in 1831, when Rev. James G. Hall became pastor for one year.Rev. Q. H. Trotman was pastor in 1834.In 1837, Rev. W. H. Jordan was chosen pastor, under whose administration the church divided, the majority retaining the old house of worship, and the minority, with the pastor, worshiping in a hall over the store now occupied by A. Kline.Mr. Jordan resigned in 1838, when Rev. Amos J. Battle took charge of the church and built the church now occupied by the Roman Catholics. This church was dedicated in May 1840, Rev. Thomas Mendith preaching the sermon, and Rev. Amos J. Battle offering the prayer of dedication. This church cost between six and eight thousand dollars, and was sold for three thousand.Rev. Lewis Du Pre was the next pastor, who served the church for three years. He was succeeded by Rev. J. J.
Finch in January 1845, who resigned in 1848, on account of ill health. In 1849, the church was served for a time by a man by the name of Holmes from New York, who was an attractive preacher, but proved to be an impostor, bearing about with him forged credentials and letters of introduction.Rev. T. W. Toby was pastor from July 1850 till July 1853, at which time Dr. A. McDowell assumed the duties of pastor, in connection with a school he taught in the city. Rev. G. W. Johnston was elected as pastor in 1855, but resigned by reason of a throat affliction before the end of the year.Rev. Thos. E. Skinner, D. D., became pastor in January, 1856. The present house of worship was dedicated Nov.
12th, 1858, Dr. J. L. Burrows, of Richmond, Va., preaching the sermon, and the late Dr. James McDowell, of Fayetteville, offering the dedicatory prayer.This church cost nearly $27,000—the lot on which it stands was presented by Dr. Skinner, A. M. Lewis and Alfred Williams. The fence which cost a thousand dollars, and the furniture of the pulpit, were also presented by Dr.
Skinner.The membership, at the time the new church was occupied, consisted of 433 souls, 228 of whom were white, and 205 colored persons.Dr. Skinner went to Europe in November, 1863, when the present pastor, having been imprisoned and banished from Baltimore by military authority, for Southern sympathy, took charge of the church till Dr. Skinner's return in 1865. In September, 1867, Dr. Skinner removed to Nashville, and in February, 1868, Dr. Pritchard became pastor, at which time the whole membership was about 260. The present catalogue of the church contains the names of 382 communicants.After the historical narrative was concluded, Dr. Pritchard submitted several practical lessons deduced from the history of the church, which we have not space to present.MASONIC.—The Grand Lodge of Colored Masons of North Carolina will

sep 10-4tA DESTRUCTIVE FIRE IN WILMING-TON.—A correspondent writing us from Wilmington, under date of yesterday, gives us an account of a fire which occurred in that city on Water Street, between Chestnut and Mulberry, supposed to have originated in the rooms occupied by the Messrs. Alderman, in rooms which were occupied as inspectors' offices. The buildings occupied by Jos. Stenberger, G. F.
Alderman & Bro., Geo. Herbert and Worrell & Co., were totally destroyed.
The loss is estimated at some 35,000 or $40,000. We will publish the letter in full to-morrow.AN IMPORTANT FACT.—The system of delivering the News in the city at fifteen cents per week, payable to the carrier, has caused it to reach a large proportion of the laboring population of the city. This system places the paper within the reach of all classes.
This is an important fact to the mer

A GENERATION BACK.

We are apt to think the present times are a sad day out of joint. To sigh, and then toward ages past. The reverend finger point. Of model husbands, model wives, say we there was no lack. Of manners, moral pride, and worth. A generation back—

The girls were modest, neat and fair. They labored on from sun to sun. With boys and maidens few. The children went to bed at dark. And seemed to have the knack. Of being seen, and never heard. A generation back—

And thus it is from age to age. And thus 'twill ever be. The scenes enacted long ago. With partial eyes we see. Our offspring in the years to come. Will tread the beaten track. And prize the conduct of their sires. A generation back.

THE NEXT STATE SENATE.

The following is the correct list of the next State Senate, to convene on the third Monday in November.

Having not as yet obtained a correct list of the House, we refrain from publishing it until we do.
